TOLEDO HIGH SCHOOL Toledo, Iowa

The spotlight is always on the Toledo High School as it is on each of the classes and the activities in which they participate throughout the year. It is our purpose in this annual to show the highlights of the 1958-59 school year.

EDITOR, Lee Christensen
ASSISTANT EDITOR, Connie Novak

DEDICATION

We, the 1959 Tohiscan Staff, would like to take this opportunity to show our appreciation to a teacher who has given a number of years of service to the Toledo Public Schools. We want to take this means of saying "Thank You" for the understanding you have shown during our years in Junior High School and for your continued interest in the Junior High students of the present. For your fine service to our schools, we wish to dedicate to you, Mrs. Ruth Smith, this 1959 edition of the Tohiscan.

SENIORS

DENNIS KAISAND
"Cooney"

Valedictorian

Greater men may have lived, but I doubt it,

LORETTA DOSTAL
Salutatorian
Patience is the art of not revealing your impatience.

CONSTANCE NOVAK

Vice-President
"Connie"

A live wire never gets stepped on.

SID MOORE

"Ace"

President

What is this power I have over women?

JAMES CIZEK
"Jim"
Secretary-Treasurer
A quiet guy . . . at times!

JANET HELLER
"Toad"
I may be late, but I'll GET there.

LINDA REED

"Louie"

All men are a poor and dirty lot, but the thing is darlin', to get one that cleans easy.

KEITH NAGLE

"Skip"

I keep a list of all the things I like to do . . . so when I get to be a father, I'll let my son do them.

LEE CHRISTENSEN
"Squirrel"

To err is human, but when the eraser wears out before the pencil, beware!

"Coop"

Of course women make fools of men, but they get a lot of cooperation.

JOYCE ZENOR "Spartow"

Her heart is like the moon . . . there's a "Man" in it.

WAYNE HALUPNIK
"Waynie"

All great men are dead, and I'm not feeling well.

CHARLES FRISBIE
"Chuck"

Women are like busses . . . there'll be another along in 10 minutes.

DORIS SELLS
"Dorie Mae"

Winds may come and winds may go, but I'll blow on forever.

SHARLA CHRISTENSON

She graduates, but her heart stays with the Juniors.

LAURENCE SVOBODA

He sings for his supper, but he'd rather eat,

VACLAV KUCERA

"Butch"

Women are like money: you have to keep them busy or they lose interest.

BETTY SEIDEL

Love is one fool thing after another . . . I feel so foolish.

NANCY BIDWELL

"Iddy Biddy"

A good many things go around in the dark besides Santa Claus.

GEORGE WHALIN

"Buddy"

The teachers always discover my faults, they never appreciate my charm,

STEVE LOWE

"Slag"

Of course, there is really no such thing as a bad boy, but I'm a very convincing actor.

DARLA FLOWERS

"Pots"

Aw, come on! Quit your kiddin'. There ain't no Santa Claus.

PATRICIA EAKINS

"Tish"

I know several thousand solutions that never work,

FREDRICK RAYMAN "Freddie"

Where's the Fire?

CURTIS MUCKLER

"Cool Muck"

Why should I study? Authorities all agree that I'm at an age when I know everything.

ALICE DIXON
"Becky"
Small, but so is a stick of dynamite.

PHYLLIS STEVENS
These trying times are the "good old days" we'll be longing for not long from now.

GENE BANES
Cal Coolidge was a farmer, tool

MERRILL MASON

How can I get to Heaven if I don't get my wings until I get there?

MARY EAKINS
"Ruth"
Once I had a thought, but it died of loneliness.

PAULINE FLOWERS
"Pat"

Gee! I wish it would snow fellows.

ANTHONY WOBETER
"Tony"
Fresh as a batch of kolaches from the Vining Hills.

ED MC INTYRE
"Wick"
As changeable as a dollar bill,

PHYLLIS BOLDT
"Phil"

Give me my own way and I'm happy.

SHIRLEY GOMMELS
"Turkey"
If you're caught talking, write a note.

BRIAN RAMSDELL
"Cec"
There's always a demand for men like me.

DAVID SEVOIK
'Dave"

He has a smile that goes all the way around and buttons in back

KATHLEEN KARKOSH
"Kathy"
The devil can't have all the fun in the world.

VIOLET JOHANNSEN
'Vi"

Two guis can keep a secret, if one is dead,

FRED MC DOWELL He's a real football "Man" ager.

LEONARD STARITS
"Blackie"

Good things come to those who wait . . . so here I stand,

JOAN SMITH I can't think of two things at once, so I think of him.

SHIRLEY WALTON Glad someone thought of graduation!

RICHARD SKALA
"Big Dick"
I've yet to find a woman worthy of me.

LARRY YILEK
He has nothing to do and plenty of time to do it.

ANGELINE SEBETK A
"Ange"
Like a star, she comes out at night.

JOAN SICHRA A quiet tongue means a busy mind.

LYNN WILKERSON

"Insect"

If at first you don't succeed, skip school again.

JAMES BRYANT

Why take life seriously? We never get out alive.

DALE EDBERG

"Eggy"

I have an ambition to grow up to be big and strong and drink pop.

RICHARD HOSEK

"Mickey Mouse"

The less you learn, the less you have to remember.

BILL HUTCHISON "Wild B.II"

What? Me worry?

JOHN KUCERA

I never let books interfere with my education.

PAUL MASON

I can't argue with my teachers; they have a lot to learn.

DENNIS ZEMAN

Ah! At last I'm out!

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"Pure As The Driven Snow" was presented once on April 10 and again by popular demand on May 1 to the last result was set in the form of an last result and result and

It was a dark and stormy night, as all nights are in meolo-drama. Purity Dean, a working girl with a secret, seeks shelter from the storm and comes to the inn.

She has been forced to give up her work in a canning factory because she cannot endure the attention of Mortiner First. Alone and peauless, confit is seen, get no nest, which offer her work at the inn, she accepts with alacrity.

She and brave Leander meet. Love blooms at first sight, But Mortimer is on her trail and it is a with or case in true for they, that repaires a not Mortime are it fep at early.

The play ends happily, as would be expected, with Mortimer's wife showing up at the last minute to ruin his villainous plot and send him to prison for his foul deeds.

CLASS POEM

Here's the class Cassanova; he's one we call Ace. As the man about town he sure sets the pace. Richard is the one who is next on our list. I hear Phyllis D. finds him hard to resist. Phyllis Boldt takes to the trail with her horse and guitar, When she isn't busy "souping" up Robert's car. I heard long ago Tony wore cordured pants in hopes that Joyce Zenor he could entrance, Sharla C. looks upward and says "Ah, DuPre;" But I'm sure it's not prayers that she's planning to say. He's short but he's brawny and every inch of him man, Just try to replace Bill H, if you can, A butcher he is and a fire fighter he will be, Freddie Rayman's ambitious I am sure you'll agree. Betty Seidel admits that a "burn gardner" she will be, " "Keith'll do the hoeing," she chuckles with glee. About Dick Skala there is much I could tell; He keeps the road hot between here and Grinnell, Her brown eyes do sparkle and she has brown curly hair, But Alice Dixon keeps mum about Dick Chizek and Traer. These two handsome lads are quite definitely pals. Laurence and Jim, so I've heard, escort the same gal. Shirley Walton has been most helpful in her own quiet way, And helped to bring much pleasure to each hour of the day. He doesn't drink - he doesn't smoke, but he does go with girls, Brian R, has an interest in the one with blonde curls. Joan Sichra is quite new but she's grown very dear, And we're glad that she found us and joined us this year, Speed Wilkerson and his Rambler have only 9 points to go, When going to get Lola, he'd better go slow! If she's short, blonde, and gabby, It's Put-Put Bidwell, What's more she'll soon wed - or so I've heard tell. John K's interest in anatomy quite touches the heart; Add the words SWEET or GOOD and you've guessed from the start. The statement is obvious althout is terse, Linda Reed, I am sure, will make a fine nurse. I am sure it's his crew cut and his quizzical smile That "Squirrel" Christensen finds it easy the girls to beguile. "Toad" Heller you might guess would give ANYONE warts: How Denny K, has escaped might fill several reports. Two names I could couple and you know who I mean. If I said one is Donna, then the other is Gene. As the class sleeping beauty, Buddy Whalin wins the prize, He spent most of his day a 'resting his eyes, He stares into space and he thinks and he thinks. We may call Butch Kucera our study hall Sphinx. Phyllis Stevens is the only one that I really know Who can tell Denny K, where to head for and go. Here's a boy who's called Skip and from school he played hookey. Sleuth Van Langen found it out and kept Skip in the pokey. Shirley Gommels is the one who is next on our list, Her shy smiles and her dimples are quite hard to resist.

Connie Novak, so I hear, has it really quite cool.

Paul Mason will drive by and bring her to school.

When she stands, take a look, I most earnestly beg.

There's no reason why Carol C, should be called "Spatsy Legs"?

Dale Edberg conquered Lit. by means of osmosis -

I hope he stays awake long enuff to hear this.

When "Chef" Muckler yells loudly "Go get me Moore."

We aren't surprised to see Marsha come thru the door.

He's at the controls - now comes the count down.

With the speed of a rocket, Leonard tears out of town.

Connie sparkles and bubbles like a glass of champagne.

But the touch of her hand will sooth many a pain.

This egghead will argue from morning to night,

Denny Kaisand will argue, if he's wrong or he's right.

A look at this blue-eyed blonde is all that you need,

To know Violet Joahnnsen could be called the class Swede.

"Papule" Steve Lowe you'll agree is a card,

You'll also agree he buys his shoes by the yard.

Eddle Mc throws spit wads and he once made home brew,

Tho it was potent and strong, it was really taboo.

When Pauline was asked if she likes mutton or ham,

She smiled and she winked and she said, "I'll take Lamb,"

On his way home perhaps "Castro" Benner should stop

At the place we all know as Jones' Barber Shop.

There's nothing reserved about this debonair chap.

Romeo Frisbie is a wolf all the girls want to trap

Angeline Sebetka is a quiet girl from the farm.

Oft we'll think of her blonde curls and her soft-spoken charm,

Judy Brones seems real quiet and has little to say,

But I'll bet she's not quiet riding in that coupe.

Joyce Zenor is narrow where a gal should be narrow:

is that why to her classmates she is known as Sparrow?

Dave's enigmatical smiles suggest he's quite shy,

But at chasing Clutier cowgirls he's really quite sly.

She's a rock 'n roll fan . . a cool cat to the core.

Pat E, soulfully sighs: "Tommy Sands I adore."

Wayne H, is long in more ways than one.

From his feet to his head - but not when there's work to be done.

Kathleen Karkosh is a girl who's full of giggles and jokes,

"True Romances" keep her happy and also quite broke.

She's blue-eyed and loquacious and is called Dorie Mae.

She'll argue and argue even tho she has nothing to say.

Jun Bryant it would seem to a harem does aspire,

It's easy to believe for he sets hearts afire,

I hear a low rumble and I look to be sure,

It's Merrill Mason and his Ford taking off with a roar.

The gal with red hair we know can't be Topsy,

So it must be the one the kids all call Potsy.

There are many as nice and many as neat,

But I'm sure it's Loretta D, who's especially sweet,

Larry Y. and Dennis Zeman make an incomparable pair.

Now argue that statement if you think that you dare,

It is quiet Fred McDowell who is last on our list.

With his diligent ways he is sure to be missed,

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1944, and Moore, Endie McIntyre, George Whalin, Richard Skala, Dale Euberg, Steve Lawe, Mctrill Masia, farian Richard Sell, Linda Reed, Nancy Bidwell, and Sharley Walton entered kinderastree. We place a partial response of angleings. George Whalin had to sation the corner for throwing water at the girls. Miss Cooper was our teacher.

Mrs. 5 mm. was our first grade teacher. We rear red Dick and Janc. Sid Moore, George William and Eddie McIntyre learned how to make paper airplanes and became good pilots.

See alignate prought two ewampels, washe halophik and a shee Flawers. Steve Lowe was the pride of the class with him ourly, air and whee out prits Wayne Halophik crawled out the wildow is 6 was not missed for over an hour. Miss Judas was our teacher.

Mass it is sebrack was our third grade teacher, Keith Nagle was a new pupil, we learned our multiplication tables and Stove Lawe was me of the first to complete these. We gave a party with real food and every our and a chance to be historicosteph. We made Christmas present that parents in a plaster paper weight horse for our fathers and a wall plaque for our mothers.

Miss Vorba was our fourth grade teacher. Juvee Zenor joined our fature class of '59 that year. We divided it groups and drew actures of the discovery of America. Date Edberg's group drew the best picture. Pauline Flowers fainted during the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mrs. Caw its was our fift; grade teacher. We made vale logs and candy too ellout of sight cubes. Not one of us in that class can forget all McIntyre's despair when Mrs. Cawelti told aim he was going to the superintendent's office for litting a boy in the eye with a spitwad. Edigraphed the ruling along the backboard and velied, "I'm not given." This would be as second trip and he knew what lay anead. It took all of Mrs. Cawelti's strength to force him to let go of the railing.

Mrs. Ruth Stint, was our last, grade teacher. We gave Ciristmas plays for our nothers that year. Denny Kaisand portrayed a boy who had a bellyache from eating too much candy.

In seventh grade we had a big political election with campaigning signs and all the trinimings. We gave a radio play for the F.F.A. We attended and gave our first dance. Miss McD maugh was our teacher.

Mrs. Rath Smitt followed as to eighth grade to be junior high principal. That year we moved into the new unior high section, which had just been completed. George Whalin gave Mrs. Smith quite a surprise when she insisted on seeing what was in his desk -- a mild puppy.

The next fall we entered high school Everything went fine intil initiation. We looked quite cute in our ipside Jown skirts and gammy sacks. We were well represented in athletics, music, speech, and all other activities.

In our sophomore year we had a hay ride and a Jance Butch Kneeta was crowned King of the sweet-heart Ball.

We attended Career Day at Grinnell in our junior year. We gave our play an November, "The Remarkable Incident at Carson's Corners," The play was a tremendous success, we gave the Junior-Senior Prom in the gym, in early May, with the theme, "Aloha."

I our senior year we spent skip Day touring the city of Milwaukee. In the morning we toured the city is went tirough the War Memorial Banding, In the afternoon, one group went to the 200, the other went to the Milwaukee-Pittsburg baseball game. Early in October, Jovee Le or and Bub Powers were crowned Queen and king of Homecomma, whi gave purchass play in April 10, "Pure as the Drive. Show," and it was such a success that it was given again or May I by popular demand. On May 8, the juniors give their prom, "Six there Hospitanty." The searchs were very grateful to the Indias for their land work.

The class chose, blue and white for their colors, rose for their flower, and for their motto. "We have opened the door; the world lies before us."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Belvedere" the stage version of 1948's most popular motion picture, written by Gwen Davenport was presented by the Junior Class in the high school gym, November 21, 1958. The three act comedy was under the direction of Mr. Leo Feany.

The Kings, the harassed parents of three, advertise for a maid and get author, self-proclaimed genius, Lynn Belvedere, who wants a place to write, but dislikes children. The entire neighborhood soon becomes interested in the odd King household, Mr. Appleton, a snoopy neighbor, helps the plot along when he calls Harry to return from Chicago because he finds Tracy and Belvedere together at night.

In the general confusion that follows, Tracy goes to her father's, and Belvedere's book is printed. When Tracy returns, Belvedere decides to hire her and Harry as a couple at a large salary to care for the children and to do the housework while he writes.
